Referral System The referral program's multiple levels represent the commissions that the user will earn from the person he/she brings and from all of the other people that his/her first referral brings. Means, if person A brings person B, person A will receive a 12% commission. And if person B brings person C, not only does person B receive a 12% commission, but also person A receives an 11% commission. And if person C brings person D then person C will get 12% commission, person B will get 11% commission & person A will get 10% commission & this chain will extend to 12 levels.
