FAQ

Frequently Asked Questions

When will the URAN token be listed on the Pancake Swap exchange?

The listing of the URAN token is scheduled for January 2022 on the Pancake Swap exchange. But the token can get into the exchange earlier if all pre-sale tokens are sold. If this happens, the main page of the site will reset the counter and official information will appear in the telegram group, Twitter, and other social networks.

How much will the price of a token be when listing on the exchange?

The price of the token when listed on the Pancake Swap exchange will be $ 0.3. This price is due to the fact that the number of tokens is very limited. But this price will rise further, up to $ 70-80 for 1 URAN. Due to the fact that, the project is very active and officially cooperates with the DUSD Network project. And it will be used in the DUSD Poker project as an additional payment coin. Still fresh with the fact that the token will open a platform where people will create their projects.

How can we be sure that this is not just another scam project ?

Uranium token is an officially certified and confirmed token. Another fact is that officially the DUSD Network project is cooperating with our project. This is certified by the roadmap in the DUSD Network project. We do not force anyone to believe us. We prove our transparency by actions. And every day we are improving our project, bringing it to perfection.

Why can't I create my own token project now?

Now our platform for creating token projects is in active development. It is scheduled to launch in March 2022, but it could be that the platform will launch after Token Uranium is listed. And after the launch of the platform, tokens gradually starts to grow in price. Because new projects will appear and develop separately and all this will affect the price of the token. At the expense of small commissions that will be used by separate projects for development.

Why there is no information about the Team and the founders of the token?

The team and the founder of the URAN token will appear on the website after the listing of the token on the exchange. Also, the information will be displayed on all our social networks.

How to participate in airdrop ?

The listing of the URAN token is scheduled for January 2022 on the Pancake Swap exchange. But the token can get into the exchange earlier if all pre-sale tokens are sold. If this happens, the main page of the site will reset the counter and official information will appear in the telegram group, Twitter, and other social networks.

How much do I get from the project by inviting a friend using a referral link?

And in connection with the pre-sale, you can buy 2000 URAN for 0.01 billion rubles. And hurry up because this amount is also limited to 400 million.
